2. Changes to the SSQ may not be made without written permission. Any such changes shall be clearly identified as having been made by the recipient. This restriction is necessary to maintain the structural integrity of the original instrument.

3. The user accepts full responsibility, and agrees to indemnify and hold the copyright holder harmless, for any consequences resulting from the use of the SSQ.

4. The user accepts full responsibility, and agrees to indemnify and hold the copyright holder harmless, for the accuracy of any translations of the SSQ into another language and for any errors, omissions, misinterpretations, or consequences thereof.

5a. Academic groups requesting use of SSQ translations are given automatic permission for use with one copy of each questionnaire as requested.

5b. Non-Academic groups interested in using the SSQ translations should contact Joyce.Cramer@gmail.com for licensing and fee information. No other group may provide copies of the questionnaires for non-academic use.

6. Translations and cross-cultural adaptations are allowed. A copy of the new version (paper and electronic) and information about the conditions of translation should be provided to Joyce Cramer when it is completed. All versions will be archived for distribution to other researchers on request.

7. The user agrees to notify the copyright holder of any publications in which SSQ data are presented. This information will be listed in a bibliography.

8. When the SSQ is described in a publication, the citations should be listed as:
